tentatious gentlemanly man. There is no price, | nor foppery, nor airs about him. He possesses the utmost simplicity of character. When in the army he fared just as his soldiers fered—ate the same food-slept under his tent and underwent similar fatigue - for fifteen months in Mexi.o, never sleeping in a house one night. His humanity, kindness, and simplicity of character, had won for him the love of his soldiers. They could approach him at all times. He never kept a guard around his tent, or any pomp or parade. He trusted his soldiers, and they trusted and loved him in return. Not a drop of his soldiers' blood was shed by him during the campaign. in battle—we hear of no military executions, no judicial shedding of blood. His heart moved to uman woe, and he was careful of the lives of his soldiers, and humane to the erring, and to the vanquished foe. He is kind, noble, generous, feeling—a friend of the masses—there is no aristocracy about him—he is a true Democrat. He will adorn the White House, and shed light over the fading and false Democracy of the day, which has gone far into its sere and yellow leaf—he would being in a true, vigorous, verdant, refreshing democracy.

GENERAL TAYLOR PROSCRIBES NO MAN POR OPINION'S SAKE.

He is a good and true Whig, but he will prothe no man for mere difference of opinion .-He hates, loathes proscription. He loves the free, independent utterance of opinion. He has commanded Whigs and Democrats on the field of battle—has witnessed their patriotic decotion and invincible courage, while standing together, shoulder to shoulder,—has seen them fight, bleed and die together; and God forbid he should prescribe any man on account of a difference of political sentinents. He would as soon think, said the speaker, of running from a Mexican!

Some object, said the speaker, to Gen. Taylor, because he is from the South and a slaveholder. Are we not one people? Do you not love the Union? Have I not the same rights as a Kentuckian to all the beach. tuckian, to all the benefits of our glorious Union, that you have as Pennsylvanians? We are one people, from the Atlantic to the Pacific; from our most Northern line to the Rio Grande, we are one people-it is all my country-it is all yours. There is no country, there never was a country, like this. Rome, in her mightiest days, never possessed so vast and splendid a country as this—so grand, so great, so glorious. Our destiny is as glorious as our country, if we hold together, and do not suffer sectional prejudices to divide us - we speak one language - our identity is the same -we are one consolidated peo-ple, and our success has latherto been glorious and unprecedented. Shall we then divide in feeling? No, no! No matter where our man is from, if he is an American. General Taylor, in his feelings, knows no South, no North, no East, no West. He is no American. Where has he lived? In his tent for forty years. His nome for forty years has been under the American. ican Flag - the Flag of his whole country. He is a national man; he has lived everywhere, wherever the flag waves! He is not a Southern man-he is an American! He prescribes no man either of the North or South; and will you proscribe him for the accident of birth and home? He condemus no man for the institutions of his State. Will you condemn him? He is a kind, generous, noble old man-a true American in GEN. TAYLOR'S HABITE.

He is a temperance man; he never drank a bottle of spirits in his life. His habits are ex-

GEN. TAYLOR'S INFLEXIBILITY OF CHARACTER. Finally, said the speaker, he is a man you cannot buy - a man you cannot sell-a man you caunot scare, - and a min who never surrenders!

SIGNS OF THE TIMES. GREAT TAYLOR MEETING IN AUGUSTA, ME.

Gentlemen: The Whig fires are burning brightly, the Whig spirit is up! On Friday evening a retification meeting was called to meet at the Capitol, and nobly did the people respond. No language of mine can describe the enthusim of that occasion. Taylor mee, Clay men, Webster men, ALL came together, like a band of others, to pledge their vows of fealty to the great cause, and give in, most enthusiastically, heir adhesion to the nominations of the Nation Union Hall, a very capacious place, was, arge numbers of the people filled the streets, Large numbers of the people uned the streets, unable to get into the place of meeting. The vast assembly was addressed by Hon Luther Severance, delegate from Kennebec to the National Convention, Hon. George Evans, Hon. John Oris, Messrs. Paine and Barnes, of the House of Representativez, R. F. Perkins, Esq. of Hollawell, and Col. Dumont, of the Senate of lollowell, and Col. Dumont, of the Senate of

The meeting, about half past ten, adjourned to the street, and a procession was immediately formed, which, accompanied by a splendid band, marched to the State-House. It was loudly cheered in its progress. The Democrats (so called) are greatly alarmed. They cannot hold the rank and file together. The name of old sch has alarmed and terrified the leaders. LARGE RATIFICATION MEETING IN LOWELL.

The Whigs and other friends to General Tay-or assembled in large numbers, in the city, in lowell, on Monday night. It was the largest neeting and one of the best meetings that we er saw in Lowell, and we have seen a great any. Homer Bartlett, Esq. presided. A series f excellent resolutions was presented by Hon.
Linus Child and adopted speeches were made by Mr. Battlett, Hon. George Lunt, Hon. Asacel Huntington, Capt. Austin of Louisiana, Mr.
Lewson of Dracut, and Mr. Shoulter of Boston. 'he sears, the galleries and the aisles, were fil-ed with the people. The meeting adjourned a-out haif past ten o'clock, with three cheers for Paylor and Fillmore. A great many democrats, we learn, will vote the Taylor ticket this fall in Lowell, and we should not be surprised if the ld here should receive a thousand majority in hat city. - Allas.

(F) The Nowburyport Heraki says that the aylor ratification meeting in that town on Thursay evening was very large. Speeches were nade by Hon. Geo. Lunt, and Major Gaines, of Ky. Hon. Ebenezer Bradbury, for nerly Speak r of the House, presided on the occasion. GEN. TAYLOR IN CONNECTICUE. - The Whigs of Norwich and friends of Taylor and Fillmore and a great meeting on Wednesday night. The orwich Courier says - "It was such a gathering stirs the blood and quickens the pulse, and car-ies back the thoughts to the scenes of 1840." The Mayor of the city presided - speeches were made by Hon. C. W. Rockwell and others.

OF There was a large meeting of the Whigs New Haven on Wednesday evening, back of e Centre Church. Hon. Reuben Booth presied. Gov. Jones, of Tenn., Gen. Coombs of Ky., and Judge Conrad, of La., entertained the audi-ence till a very late hour. It is estimated that 500 persons were present.

The "Syracuse Journal," in the heart of

e Empire State, thus speaks right out;
"The masses, the bone and snew of the Whig party, are ready to come forward in one solid column to the support of Taylor and Fillmore. They are impressed with feelings in their favor hat inspire them to action like those which upted their leader in the contests at Resaca e la Palma and Buena Vista, certain that victowill be won. Talk not to us about bolting to ticket in Central New York. The idea is reposterous. The Whigs of Onondaga County ready to pledge 1500 majority for Taylor and illmore, and if more is desired the number will a increased. In making this statement we speak th confidence, having taken some expressions opinion from Whigs in the several towns in e county. There is but one impression among em, and that is a belief that our ticket will ed by a greater majority than was ever obained by our opponents, even in the palmicat ays of Locolocoism. Such are the feelings into which the Whigs accept and approve the ecision of the highest tribunal of the party." Wisconsin. - Movements are in progress in Visconsin, to call a Convention in concurrence ith the Barnburner programme in New York, imilar indications are made in Illinois. The mation of Mr. Wentworth for re-election, ter coming out in strong terms against the ominees of the Baltimore Convention, is regard-as a virtual endorsement of his views by his ongressional District. KENTUCKY .- The Lexington (Ky.) Atlas, a aper that has devoted all its energies to the apport of its illustrious townsman, says:

confident hope that the day of our country's redemption is not far distant.

GEN LEGIE COOMS, AND HIS GOOD EXAMPLE.—Gen. Coombs is the personal friend of Henry Clay—but he is now doing all he can to secure the election of Gen. Taylor. Having spoken in Newark on Monday evening, in Brooklyn on Tuesday evening, he and Gov. Jones go now to speak in Connecticut. Gen. Coombs, in the course of his speech at Newark, speaking of Gen. Taylor, said:

"Fellow citizens, if you knew this old man as I know him, you would wonder how any other man could fail to love and honor him. He reminds me more of Cincinnatus, whom Rome called from the field to save her, than any other man of ancient story. He is my beau ideal of a

Thus you see he has reduced our pay for clothing from $3,50 to $2,50. This, I suppose, is the compensation we get for fighting our way to the Capitol. As soon as the 1st Pennsylvanians received news that this famous bill had passed, they criended a rope across the main road leading to the City of Mexico, and hund in a first politics, ordered it to be cut down, but the boys had him in his just position again soon after, where he bung till evening, when he was taken down and downed to the stake!
